📍 New York

Aaron Lawrence is an antitrust litigator at Bona Law, where he focuses on antitrust and other complex commercial litigation. Aaron brings extensive experience representing clients in high-stakes disputes across a variety of industries.

Before joining Bona Law in 2025, Aaron was an associate in the New York office of Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP. At Quinn Emanuel, he played key roles in nationwide antitrust class actions, complex bankruptcy adversary proceedings, and a high-profile SPAC merger dispute in Delaware Chancery Court.

During law school, Aaron interned with the New York Office of the Attorney General, where he learned how governments conduct antitrust and fraud investigations.

Before becoming a lawyer, Aaron competed in collegiate water polo as a CWPA DIII All-American.
